

Natural Therapies Student Proposal Form

Are you covered for practicing outside of study?

Do you conduct additional natural therapies work outside your course requirements? If so, even if you don't charge, you may need to purchase public liability and professional risks insurance.

You are covered by your college/school for practical work you carry out as part of your course, even if it's out of school hours or off campus. However, this does NOT apply if you also practice outside of your course requirements.

If you are conducting additional work outside your course requirements you will need to consider purchasing your own cover. This offer is only available to students whose college or school is covered through Arthur J. Gallagher and is subject to a very important condition.

The cover will only apply in respect to modalities in which you have been trained and are accredited to practice by the college/school.

About the Cover

Combined Liability (i.e. Public Liability and Professional Risks) is available to you to protect yourself against claims from third parties for injury or damage to property. The policy will protect you when you are carrying out modalities for which you have been trained and are authorised to practice by your college/school.

Important notices

Duty of Disclosure

Before entering into a contract of general insurance, you have a duty, under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth), to disclose to the Insurer every matter that you know or could reasonably be expected to know, that is relevant to the Insurer's decision about insuring you and if so, on what terms. Your duty does not require disclosures of matters:

- That diminish the risk;
- That are of common knowledge;
- That the Insurer knows, or in the ordinary course of its business as an insurer, ought to know;
- As to which compliance with your duty of disclosure is waived by the Insurer.

You have the same duty to disclose those matters to the Insurer before you renew, extend, vary or reinstate a contract of general insurance.

Non-Disclosure - If you fail to comply with your Duty of Disclosure, the Insurer may be entitled to reduce its liability under the policy in respect of a claim or may cancel the policy. If your non-disclosure is fraudulent the Insurer may void the policy from its inception. This is why it is vital that enquiry must be made of all relevant principals, directors, employees, contractors, and subsidiaries before this Proposal is signed by or on behalf of the prospective Insured.

Your Privacy - The privacy of customers of Arthur J. Gallagher & Co (Aus) Limited is important. Arthur J. Gallagher is bound by obligations under privacy laws including the Australian Privacy Principles and the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth). The way in which Arthur J. Gallagher collects, uses, discloses and stores personal information about its customers is set out in its privacy policy available at We Respect Your Privacy.

The personal information you provide in this Proposal is collected and held by Arthur J. Gallagher so that it can assess and administer products and services to you, including but not limited to processing your application for insurance under this Proposal. If you choose not to provide your personal information Arthur J. Gallagher may not be able to process your insurance application or administer your account.

Arthur J. Gallagher discloses relevant personal information to external organisations that help provide their services and may also disclose some of your personal information to other parties when required to do so to provide Arthur J. Gallagher's products and services. This may include discussing your personal information with any approved association which you are a member of for the purposes of determining on inception of any policy of insurance, and/or any renewal of such policy of insurance, whether you are a fully paid up member of an approved association and whether you are entitled to any discounted insurance provided by Arthur J. Gallagher.

Utmost good faith - Every insurance contract is subject to the doctrine of utmost good faith, which requires that parties to the contract should act toward each other with the utmost good faith. Failure to do so on your part may prejudice any claim or the continuation of cover provided by the insurer.

Change of Circumstance - It is vital that you advise us of any departure from your "normal" form of business (i.e. the business details that have been advised to your Insurer). For example, any change to business activities, ownership, acquisitions, changes in location, or new overseas activities.

Subrogation - You may prejudice your rights with regard to a claims if, without prior agreement from the Insurer, you make an agreement with a third party that will prevent the Insurer from recovering the loss from that party of another party.

Under insurance - Your property is insured for reinstatement and replacement costs and as such the Insured amounts should represent the full replacement value at new costs. If this is not done any claim you make for these costs may not be paid in full.

BINDING AUTHORITY - In effecting this contract of insurance Arthur J. Gallagher & Co. (Aus) Limited is or will be acting under an authority given to it by Berkley Insurance Australia to effect the contract. Arthur J. Gallagher & Co. (Aus) Limited will be effecting the contract of insurance as agents of Berkley Insurance Australia and not of you as the Insured. Arthur J. Gallagher & Co. (Aus) Limited is authorised to provide Specialty Risks under this authority.

Please be advised that we do include a broker fee and receive remuneration from your policy.
