

Tourism and recreation insurance you can trust

Specialist insurance cover designed for the tourism and recreation industry and tailored for your business

Gallagher's TRIP (Tourism and Recreation Insurance Program) is designed to provide comprehensive public liability cover for tourism businesses of all types and sizes, from associations to sole operators. The cover can be used across a huge range of operations, including adrenaline activities, with the added benefit of professional indemnity cover provided at no extra cost if needed.

Benefits

Stability

as a well-established cover, TRIP offers you and your business peace of mind

Security

TRIP is backed by the world's oldest insurance market: Lloyd's of London

Flexibility

policies can be tailored to fit the needs of your business and your balance sheet

Scope

coverage can be extended to more than 125 activities

Competitive prices and coverage

Alongside its host of benefits, TRIP offers introductory rates for new businesses choosing the cover. As an established and secure product, TRIP is also able to offer a $20 million general liability limit (with up to $100 million in capacity) to protect your business in the event of a claim.

As an insurance product designed and built for the tourism industry, TRIP also offers discretionary cover for adrenaline activities such as abseiling, kayaking and white water rafting, and many more. Gallagher's TRIP offering can also include specialist cover for sports and tour operators offering recreational activities. Whether your business offers birdwatching trips, camel rides or winery tours we can help you.

How else can we help?

At Gallagher we know that every business requires different risk management and insurance solutions and our specialist brokers take a personalised approach to providing insurance cover specific to your needs.

Outside of TRIP, our team can arrange a wide variety of cover to meet the insurance needs of any tourism business, including

- commercial property and motor vehicles
- portable or general property
- management liability
- cyber liability
- charter boats
- office and general business
- corporate travel
- group personal accident
- workers' compensation.

Gallagher's tourism industry insurance specialists can help to identify and protect your tourism operation's risk exposures.
